INT. LIFT TUNNEL

A large elevator shaft that goes to the surface. We see our team captains in the process of scaling the shaft.

We see NAOMI climbing near CLEO.

NAOMI
Uhhhh, how much farther is it!? I'm getting blisters on my fingers. And my nail polish is chipping!

CLEO
Where'd you get nail polish?

NAOMI
I make it myself, girl! Just 'cause we live underground like mole people don't mean we got to look like moles.

We see JASON climbing with other shark team members going past CLEO. He's shouting orders at his team like a drill sergeant, but he's clearly exhausted and out of breath.

JASON
(breathing heavily)
Allright Sharks, let's move! These owls should be eating our dust. Sharks are natural climbers, come on, push it!

JASON moves past CLEO.

CLEO
Hey, maybe you should stop and take a breather...

JASON
(panting heavily]
No can do, Red.

We See Maya, she’s climbing up ahead of the others. We see her necklace. While JASON continues talking below, the necklace begins to hum with a strange energy.

JASON (CONT’D)
I’m barely breaking a sweat here. In fact -- I was just about to kick it into overdrive!

CLEO is getting more annoyed that JASON is needlessly overexerting himself.

CLEO
Slow down, there’s no hurry -- you’re gonna lose your grip!

We see MAYA’s necklace again--in an instant it starts to glow and rocks begin to fall from the walls.

JASON
Why don’t you worry about your own--ahhhhhhhhh!

The walls of the cavern quake and JASON loses his grip and begins to fall. In an instant a hand reaches down and grabs his. It’s YASH.

JASON
(frantic panting)

We see YASH help JASON reestablish a grip.

YASH
Tortoise and the hare, brother. Take it slow. Let's all get there in one piece.

JASON appears to have learned his lesson.

JASON
(shaken)
Yeah...I guess we could slow down so the rest of you can keep up...

EXT. ESTABLISHING SHOT FOR THE FIRST MAP ZONE - THE DRYLANDS

We see more shots of teams making their way up the tunnel. Time passes. Soon they've reached the top.

The teams reach the top of the Lift tunnel and pull themselves up, walking out into a blinding sunlight. As they step through the already open doors of the lift, they look out to observe the vast open desert of a red planet. The rich blue sky looks mesmerizing against the endless sea of red sand.

REN
Huh. So that's the sky huh?
(pause)
I don't like it. It's weird -- too open.

YASH
Yes! I was just thinking that. It doesn't feel cozy. You know what it needs -- a ceiling, like right above our heads!

MAYA steps forward, captivated.

MAYA
No...it's perfect. It's so...infinite.

301_Enc-3 [Checking In] Dialogue-Radio

Teams call in to the bunker using a video chat.

MAYA
Hello? Anyone there?

We hear ANTON's voice but don't see him on screen yet.

ANTON
Hello? How does this thing work? What button do I push? I already tried that one. Okay, okay! Got it.
